

CONTRACTORS SITE TERMS & CONDITIONS

Type of Work Prohibited:

As we are a Volvo Penta Centre, we prohibit any unauthorised Volvo Penta engineering work on site. We also strictly prohibit unauthorised anti-fouling by any contractor as we provide this service and carry this out in a safe and environmental friendly manner.

Vehicles and Parking:

A maximum of 1 vehicle is allowed on the site, which must be parked in the car park area. If your vehicle is not parked in this area, we will not accept any responsibility if the vehicle is damaged by our boat moving operations.

Rubbish Disposal:

All rubbish must be removed from our sites in your vehicle and disposed of by yourself. It is your responsibility to clean up your working area each day on larger jobs or when you have completed your work on smaller jobs. R.K. Marine will charge for removal of your rubbish.

Health and Safety:

All contractors must follow current Health and Safety laws and regulations on our sites, provide us their Health and Safety policy and provide a method statement for larger works.

Opening Hours:

Contractors should only work on site within the Boat Yard's opening hours (08.00 to 17.00 hours Monday to Friday). Both sites are not open to contractors at weekends.

Electricity:

Electricity is only supplied by card meters. Electric cards are available from the sales counter at Swanwick and the Boat Yard office at Warsash.

Water:

If you wish to use water and/or hose pipes on our sites, prior permission must be gained from R.K. Marine. R.K. Marine charges boat cleaners and other contractors using water for financial gain.

Toilet facilities:

Toilet facilities are provided at the end of our main work shop building at Swanwick and at the grey toilet block at Warsash.

Site Charges:

R.K. Marine charges all contractors who carry out work on site. The current charges are: Daily Charge of £15.00 per day plus vat or an Annual charge of £125.00 per year plus vat.

Signing in:

All contractors should sign in at R.K. Marine's reception at Swanwick and Boat Yard office at Warsash.

Right to Exclude Entry:

Any non-compliance with any of these terms and conditions, then R.K. Marine reserves the right to not allow entry. R.K. Marine also has the right to not allow entry on risk or commercial conflict grounds.
